

From Purchase to Access

*A walk-through and helpful tips regarding the purchase and access of SAGE Vantage when buying from a
Barnes & Noble College Store.*

Reminder

If the course is part of an Inclusive Access course, these instructions do not apply.

Before you do anything:

Ask your instructor this question...

- Is the course integrated into the school's Learning Management System?

If answer = No

- The Instructor should provide the Vantage CourseLink (established and provided upon instructor course creation in Vantage).
 - Using the CourseLink will ensure students are utilizing the correct content and will save steps in the process.

If answer = Yes

- Click on the link in the LMS to launch to Vantage

I'm on vantage.sagepub.com...now what?

- Register for your Vantage account.
- It's recommended that you use your school-issued email address throughout the purchase and access process.
- Click "Start a Grace Period" to gain free, trial access of the Vantage content for the course.

I'm ready to purchase full access!

When purchasing from the bookstore...

- Use the same email address for both purchase and access:
 - Use the same email address for purchase that was used when registering for the Grace Period subscription.
Ideally, a school-issued email: this is particularly important for courses that are integrated into the schools LMS.
- Know that you will not need to copy/paste any codes directly into Vantage!

Barnes & Noble's Yuzu Platform

Digital materials purchased from your
Barnes & Noble College Store
will be provisioned via the Yuzu platform

A screenshot of the Yuzu login page. At the top, it says "Login". Below that is a green banner with the text "Welcome to Yuzu. Sign in with your Campus Bookstore Account." followed by a small icon. There are two input fields: "E-mail" and "Password". Below the fields is a yellow "Log in" button with a lock icon. At the bottom, there is a link for "Forgot Password?".

Here's the general process we'll be walking through:

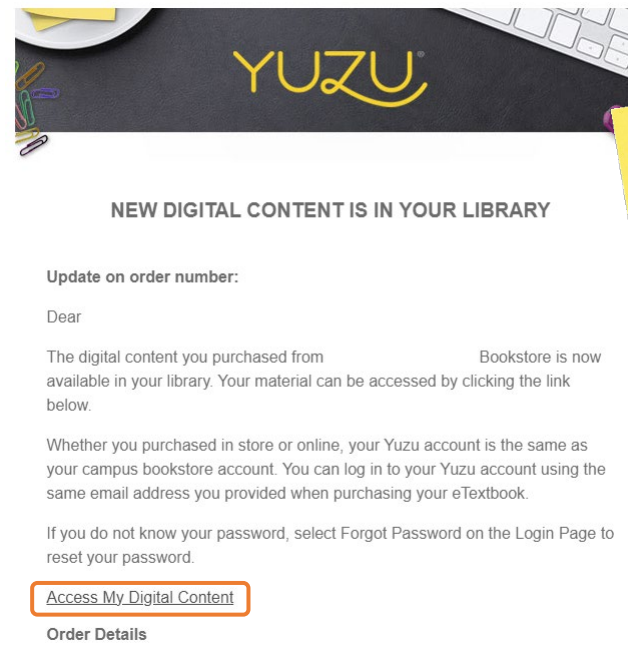

1. Purchase from the bookstore (online or in-store)
2. Locate the access email from the bookstore (the second one)
3. Log into Yuzu by clicking "Access My Digital Content"
4. Clicking on the Vantage product will launch the user over to the Yuzu-branded VitalSource platform
5. Click through the steps to "Launch Courseware"
6. User will be redirected to vantage.sagepub.com in a new tab
 - The launch carries with it the purchase details; therefore, students should NEVER type in the Vantage URL, and NEVER need to paste a code into Vantage.
7. Sign into the Vantage account you created when registering for your grace period (or register for a new SAGE Vantage account)
8. The subscription should be applied to the SAGE Vantage My Course Dashboard.

Vantage Platform Access

Your subscription will be applied to your SAGE Vantage account!

If you previously registered for a Grace Period...

- Using the same email address, it should apply the subscription to your account; simply continue working.
- Using a different email address, you will need to migrate your subscription.
 - Follow these instructions: <https://youtu.be/fMPKyh1j-LU>

If you did NOT previously register for a Grace Period...

- Click “Enter Course ID”
As your instructor for your CourseID.

The screenshot shows the SAGE Vantage platform interface. At the top, there are two tabs: "My Courses" and "My Profile". Below the tabs, there is a teal header with the text "No course selected". The main content area is white and contains a course card for "Teaching: Introduction to the Art of Teaching" by Mark Van Dine, Robert Schmitt, and Robert Schmitt. The course card features a cover image with sunflowers and the number "3". To the right of the course card, the text reads "No course has been selected for this title." Below the course card, there is a teal button labeled "ENTER COURSE ID". At the bottom of the course card, it says "ACCESS EXPIRES: April 13, 2023".
